

London Pass Guidebook

1-Day Hop-On Hop-Off Bus Tour

Simply present your London Pass when boarding either a Big Bus or Golden Tours bus to enjoy access. Details of any impact to Hop-On Hop-Off bus services as a result of events or activities in Central London can be found here for Big Bus, or here for Golden Tours.

Please note: a bus tour is a great way to see the top sights around London, however, we advise against using the bus tours as a mode of transportation around the city. For more efficient transport - we'd suggest using London's public transport networks.

Hours of Operation

In light of COVID-19 and to ensure the safety of its passengers, our hop-on, hop-off bus companies are operating greatly reduced services.

For details of the route, stopping points, and days of operation for Big Bus, please visit bigbustours.com.

For details of the route, stopping points, and days of operation for Golden Tours, please visit goldentours.com.

Windsor Castle

Attraction status as of Apr 27, 2021: Closed

Getting in: Just show your pass upon entry.

- The winter months see the State Apartments beautifully decorated for Christmas, making this a great time to visit.
- Visiting with children? Pick up a brand new multimedia guide to help little ones get the most from their visit to the Castle (available in many different languages). A family tour led by Scorch the dragon is also sure to delight younger members of the family.
- Windsor Castle operates security checks upon entry, please arrive with as few bags and bulky items as possible.

Please note: You must take the same return journey back from Windsor to Paddington Station via Slough or else you may be charged on your Oyster Card.

How to get there

- Windsor Castle can get busy during the mornings. Visit after 14.00 to avoid queues and a better experience.
- Travel by train, to and from Windsor Castle, is included with both London Pass and London Pass + Travel packages.
- Travel from London Paddington after 12.30 only, board a train for Slough and change at Slough for a train to Windsor & Eton Central.
- Show your London Pass to the ticket controller at the ticket barrier at London Paddington and they will let you through.
- Travel is free of charge and included in the price of the pass.
- Do not use your Oyster Travelcard (if you have one) at the barrier as this will affect your credit.

Hours of Operation
